May is Mary's Month. We will pray the Rosary every Friday during May commencing at 5:45PM on our wooden deck or by the Shrine if weather permits.

Monti Arnett has taken an extended leave-of-absence as our Friday evening bartender; Sue Keazer will become our Friday and also Sunday bartender.

As an experiment to test interest, the Club will be open and a bartender present not only on Friday from 5:30 to 9:30/10:00, but also on Sunday's from 3:00 until 7:00. If sufficient interest is shown for the Sunday hours they will be continued.

The work day was a great success. Several members and scouts showed up and worked very hard. We crossed a lot of things off of our "need to get done" list, but we still have a lot more to do. When you come out to the club look around and enjoy, especially look at the "Shrine" its up and running with lights and waterfall. Thank you all for the help!

If there are any member(s) that would like to help out in taking care of the Softball diamonds at Our Lady of Guadalupe, it would be very welcomed. We have held our state tournament there for several years and it has always been very successful and a great place to play. They are in need of more help to keep these diamonds in the shape we come to expect; come July 10 for the start of our 2009 tournament. Please contact John Rodriguez @ 664-5913

The KOC annual picnic is June 28. Fried chicken and drinks will be provide, please bring a side dish. Come and enjoy the food, games and fellowship. A fishing derby is planned for the kids and horse shoes for the adults. Dinner will be served at 5:30.
